Varaahaavathaaram (Incarnation of Varaaha or Boar)

[This chapter as the caption says is the incarnation of Varaaha or Boar or Hog or Water Pig. (I think Varaaha can be a Rhinoceros or Crocodile. Dictionary meaning of Varaaha can be crocodile also but did not see Rhino. But according to the description of its strength, power and size it is more appropriate to consider it as a Rhino. According to Dhesaavathaara or Ten Incarnations of Vishnu Mathsyaavathaara or Incarnation as Fish is considered as the first one. But incidentally Varaaha Avathaara is the first one described in Sreemadh Bhaagawatham in the course of the story.) We will read a detailed description of how the Varaaha was formed or produced from the nostrils of Brahma Dheva in the size of a thumb and then how instantaneously it grew into the size of a mountain. And we would also read a detailed picture of how the earth, which was sunk in water of the eternal Ocean, was raised by Varaaha by lifting the whole earth in its tusk. Brahma Dheva, Sanathkumaaraas, Mareechi and other divine sages had the opportunity to witness the amazing feats of Varaaha. So, all of them worshipped, prayed, saluted, prostrated and offered obeisance to Lord Sri Vaasudheva Sri Maha Vishnu Bhagawaan, especially, in the Form of Varaaha. Please continue to read with full devotion...]

Maithreya Mahaamune. And I know that Lord Sri Vaasudheva Sri Krishna Bhagawaan would be pleased to place his lotus feet on the head of those devotees who listen to His glorious stories. And that is the most important and ultimate purpose of life.

Vidhura is a steadfast devotee of Lord Sri Vaasudheva Sri Krishna Bhagawaan. His mind and heart is always ready and interested to listen to the stories of Lord Sri Vaasudheva Sri Krishna Bhagawaan and he always with his mind and heart pats the lotus feet of Lord Sri Vaasudheva Sri Krishna Bhagawaan for his blessings. Therefore, you already have and possess the best quality for this life as well as for any future lives.

Hey, the best of Kuru Dynasty, Sinless Vidhura! When Brahma Dheva was deeply contemplating how to or who can lift up the sinking earth a very tiny form of baby Boar just as big as the upper portion of his thumb came out his nostrils.

Oh, the best of the Bharatha Dynasty, Vidhura! When Brahma Dheva was observing that baby Boar automatically moved towards the sky and got situated there. Again, in the next moment Brahma Dheva noticed that the Boar grew to gigantic size of a huge elephant. Brahma Dheva was wonderstruck at that sight.

Brahma Dheva along with Sanathkumaaraas, Mareechi and other great sages and Manu observing the instantaneous and amazing growth and huge form of the Iconic Boar started thinking of many different options with astonishment and wonder of the cause, the source and the reason for manifestation of the Boar.

Brahma Dheva loudly thought and shared it with Sanathkumaaraas and others and started debating: “This is truly amazing! This creation which we see as standing in the form of a Boar is definitely some extraordinarily divine and effulgent entity. There is no doubt about it. It is again unbelievably wonderful to understand how this was able to come out of my nostrils.”

play some tricks on us? My mind is getting very perturbed, and I am bewildered. This must be the illusory power of Lord Sri Vaasudheva Sri Maha Vishnu Bhagawaan.”

When Brahma Dheva was sitting with his sons debating about his thoughts and their thoughts about the formation and magnificence of the Boar, they all were dull witted and confused and unable to reach any concrete resolution. At that time Lord Sri Vaasudheva Sri Maha Vishnu Bhagawaan, who is the consort of Lakshmi Bhagawathi and who is the provider of appropriate results for virtuous actions, who has now incarnated as the Boar assumed the size of a huge mountain produced tumultuous sound of roaring like thunders.

Lord Sri Vaasudheva Sri Maha Vishnu Bhagawaan, Hari, is always keenly interested and involved in removing all the distresses and confusions of His devotees. Lord Sri Vaasudheva Sri Maha Vishnu Bhagawaan produced the loud roaring sound which echoed in all the worlds of the universe to provide happiness and comfort to Brahma Dheva who is unborn and hence known as Aja, Sanathkumaaraas, Marichi and other Sages and Rishees, Manu and others by removing their bewilderment and confusion.

When Brahma Dheva and other sages of Sathyaloka heard the tumultuous sound which was very auspicious and pleasing they were able to understand that the Boar is the incarnation of Lord Sri Vaasudheva Sri Maha Vishnu Bhagawaan who is the embodiment of eternal illusory power and eternal energy. Then all of them started worshipping with the glorifying hymns of Vedhaas like Rig, Yejur and Saama proclaiming the greatness and nobility of Transcendental Lord Sri Vaasudheva Sri Maha Vishnu Bhagawaan.

And in order to bless Brahma Dheva and others of Sathyaloka He made another happy tumultuous sound and jumped into the water just like an elephant jumping into the water for pleasure and play.

Lord Sri Vaasudheva Sri Maha Vishnu Bhagawaan, the transcendental supreme God, in the form of Varaaha or Boar or Water Hog raised its tail up in the air and slashed with tremendous force. It assumed mountainous form. It quivered its mane and created havoc. Its body was fully covered with thick growth of hard hairs. The clouds flew away with the hoof steps of the Boar. It has projected long white tusks at the sight of which the whole universe was trembling. Both the eyes were red hot and very terrific. The Boar which is the incarnation of Lord Sri Vaasudheva Sri Maha Vishnu Bhagawaan jumped into the ocean to lift the sinking earth up.

The Boar indicated that it was able to locate the position of earth by sniffing and smelling. Its nostrils were expanded. It displayed its huge and terrifying canine tooth or tusk. But the Boar was looking mildly and divinely and affectionately at the Brahmins who were offering devotional prayers, worship and obeisance to Him. Then he approached the earth.

The Boar looked like a huge mountain of diamond and was very sturdy, strong and stout. When that huge Boar jumped into the ocean with unmatched power and strength the water moved to all four sides creating a huge and powerful mountain of waves. When Brahma Dheva and other Sages heard the fearful sound, they worshipped Lord Sri Vaasudheva Sri Maha Vishnu Bhagawaan “Oh YejnJEsvara! Oh, the embodiment of Yaagaas! Oh Lord Sri Vaasudheva Sri Maha Vishnu Bhagawaan! We humbly request you to save us. We humbly request you to protect us. There is no one else to safeguard and take care of us.” That’s how any onlookers might have felt and that’s what happened.

The water was all over and was covering everything and anything. But at some places at times the hooves of the Boar were clearly visible beating the water away from its way. The Boar was definitely able to locate the earth which was in the Netherworld or Paathaalam or Resaathalam. This earth which is the base for all living and nonliving entities used to be held inside the stomach of Lord Sri Vaasudheva Sri Maha Vishnu Bhagawaan, about whom Brahma Dheva and other divine Sages were trying to understand partially, in the past. [Brahma Dheva, Sanathkumaaraas were trying to understand partially about Lord Sri Vaasudheva Sri Maha Vishnu because they were well aware that they could never understand Him fully.]

The Boar carried the earth, which was sunk into the ocean and hidden in the netherworld, on its strong tusk and brought it up. How can anyone describe the scene of Varaaha Moorththi, the incarnation of Lord Sri Vaasudheva Sri Maha Vishnu Bhagawaan, bringing up the earth from Resaathalam? Nobody can ever describe it. It is beyond words and imaginations. The most ferociously terrific and brave and strong Asura, who was one of the primary creations, jumped up immediately with his huge club to block the Boar from carrying away the earth from Resaathalam. [The name of the Asura is Hiranyaaksha and he was the younger twin brother of Hiranyakasipu.] But the Varaaha Moorththy immediately invoked the most effulgent and disastrous Sudharsana Chakraayuddha or the symbolic weapon of Sudhersan Wheel and killed him within water. Thus, the Asura has been merged into one of the five elements, water. It was just like how a lion king playfully kills its enemy, elephant. The mouth, face and neck of the Boar were smeared with blood stains of the Asura. That appearance of Varaaha Moorththy was like that of a rutting elephant running in reddish color by digging the purple earth of the mountain.

Just like elephants playing by digging earth and throwing dust on its body Lord Sri Vaasudheva Sri Maha Vishnu Bhagawaan in the form of Varaaha Moorththy brought up the earth on its tusk just like a playful match. And seeing the appearance of Varaaha Moorththy holding the earth on its tusk and raising the earth above water Brahma Dheva and other divine sages like Sanathkumaaraas confirmed that the form of Varaaha Moorththy is definitely none other than Lord Sri Vaasudheva Sri Maha Vishnu Bhagawaan, the ultimate supreme God and the Primordial Primary Personality.

We prostrate and worship at that divine form of Varaaha Moorththy.
